

PARENT/STUDENT/STAFF CONFERENCES

Conferences should be held with students to explain and discuss strengths and weaknesses in their grades and the strategies by which to deal with problem areas. The Board acknowledges the value of active parental involvement in a child's educational success. The Board recommends that teachers and parents make use of parent conferences to share information on the pupil's academic progress and to share insights in the student's needs.

Proposed: 08/28/00

Adopted: 10/02/00